

Chinese Taipei Regional Office Activity Report (for Aug., 2017)

Ya-Wen Betty Chiu (Taipei Medical University)

- In December 2016, Dr. Yaw-Tang Shih, former Deputy Health Minister of Taiwan and current Chairman of MJ Health Research Foundation, was invited to present a special lecture on “Leadership in Healthcare Management” at Taipei Medical University.
- In December 2016, Associate Dean Song-Lih Huang of National Yang-Ming University in Taiwan was invited to present a special lecture regarding “Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities” at Taipei Medical University.
- In March 2017, Dr. Li-Ling Huang, Research Collaborator from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, was invited to present a special lecture on “Increase the Efficacy of Health Communication Programming in Global Tobacco Control: Mass Media Campaigns” at Taipei Medical University.
- In March 2017, Dr. Yen-Ting Chen, from the Institute of Public Health and National Yang-Ming University, was invited to present a special lecture on “The Impact of Internal Displacement on Child Mortality in Post-Earthquake in Haiti” at Taipei Medical University.
- In December 2016, TMU invited Dr. Chunhuei Chi, Center for Global Health, Oregon State University, U.S.A., to conduct a 5-day workshop which covered topics including: “Evolution of International Health”, “Science and Politics in Global Health”, “Environment, Climate Change”, and Health Development”, and “Changing the Tide: Community Ownership in Global Health Development”.
- In March 2017, Dr. Chunhuei Chi, of the Center for Global Health, from Oregon State University, U.S.A., was invited to present two special lectures on “Conflicts, Displacement, and Refugees” and “WHO, WTO, WB, IMF and the Roles of Supra-Governments in Global Health” at Taipei Medical University.
- In May 2017, TMU invited Dr. Masamine Jimba, Director of the Department of Community and Global Health from the University of Tokyo and the President-Elect of Asia-Pacific Academic Consortium for Public Health (APACPH), to conduct a 4-day workshop which covered topics including: “Primary Health Care and Health Promotion: The Issues of Yesterday?”, “Human Security Approach in Global Health”, and “International Public Health Summit Topic: Science and Art in Public Health: Back...for the Future”.
- In May 2017, Dr. Indika Karunathilake, Director of Medical Education Development and Research Centre from the University of Colombo and the Vice President of APACPH, was invited by TMU for the 3-day visitation program. Future collaboration in capacity building of scientific research was discussed.

- In May 2017, Dean Chia Kee Seng of Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health from the National University of Singapore, an APACPH Institutional member, was invited to present a special lecture on “The Art of War - Combating Diabetes in the 21st Century” at Taipei Medical University.
- In May 2017, TMU invited Dr. Masamine Jimba, Director of the Department of Community and Global Health from the University of Tokyo and President-Elect of APACPH, and Dean Chia Kee Seng of Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health from the National University of Singapore, to attend the 2017 International Public Health Summit hosted by TMU.
- In May 2017, Dr. Betty Chiu was invited to attend the 1st APACPH Bangkok Region Conference and the 8th International Public Health Conference toward Achieving Sustainable Development Goals, 2030.